Dear Parents

We are happy to inform you about an optional online course on the History of Fashion for the students of grades VII to X.

Through this course, students will trace the many ways fashion has been reinterpreted over the last 350 years. Starting in the 17th century, they will review in a snap shot how events in history have influenced fashion. They will look at history with new dimensions of exploration, which are fashion, music, art, dance and culture. They will also be able to unravel how everything is interconnected and how "Fashion is a true reflection of time".
