Dear Parents,

We proudly bring you the R.E.N.M.U.N. chapter 1

MUN stands for Model United Nations, where students' diplomat skills are simulated to provide them with the exposure which usually is not frequently provided in formal school setups.. Your children will discuss world problems and learn to adopt new perspectives. Giving them not only critical knowledge of world politics but also making them sensitive to world issues and most importantly making them empath. Children will be given orientations by trained MUNers. This is a critical event that will not only develop the student's language and debating skills but will also introduce them to the MUN culture

The event is on 10th and 11th December, 2022

Committees and agendas:

- United Nations Human Rights Council: Loss of human rights in Russo-Ukrainian war
